(1) Policy for Penny Stock

Penny stocks are stocks that trade at a relatively low price and market capitalization. These type of stocks are generally considered to be highly speculative and high risk because of their lack of liquidity, large bid-ask spreads, small capitalization and limited following and disclosure. Depending on the market condition and Risk Management System (RMS) policy of the company the RMS department reserves the right to refuse to provide the limit in penny stocks and losses, if any, on account of such refusal shall be borne by client only.

(2) Setting up client's exposure limits

The stock broker may from time to time impose and vary limits on the orders that the client can place through the stock broker's trading system (including exposure limits, turnover limits, limits as to the number, value and/or kind of securities in respect of which orders can be placed etc.). The client is aware and agrees that the stock broker may need to vary or reduce the limits or impose new limits urgently on the basis of the stock broker's risk perception and other factors considered relevant by the stock broker including but not limited to limits on account of exchange/SEBI directions/ limits (such as broker level/market level limits in security specific/volume specific exposures etc.), and the stock broker may be unable to inform the client of such variation, reduction or imposition in advance. The client agrees that the stock broker shall not be responsible for such variation, reduction or imposition or the client's inability to route any order through the stock broker's trading system on account of any such variation, reduction or imposition of limits. The client further agrees that the stock broker may at any time, at its sole discretion and without prior notice, prohibit or restrict the client's ability to place orders or trade in securities through the stock broker, or it may subject any order placed by the client to a review before its entry into the trading systems any may refuse to execute / allow execution of orders due to but not limited to the reason of lack of margin / securities or the order being outside the limits set by stock broker / exchange / SEBI and any other reasons which the stock broker may deem appropriate in the circumstances. The client agrees that the losses, if any on account of such refusal or due to delay caused by such review, shall be borne exclusively by the client alone.

We have margin based RMS system. Total deposits of the clients are uploaded in the system and client may take exposure on the basis of margin applicable for respective security as per VAR based margining system of the stock exchange and/or margin defined by RMS based on their risk perception.

In case of exposure taken on the basis of shares margin the payment is required to be made before the exchange pay in date otherwise it will be liable to square off after the pay in time or any time due to shortage of margin.

(3) Applicable brokerage rate

Brokerage will be charged within the limits prescribed by SEBI / Exchange.

(4) Imposition of penalty/delayed payment charges

Clients will be liable to pay late Pay-in / delayed payment charges for not making payment of their pay-in / margin obligation on time as per the exchange requirement / schedule at the rate of 2% per month.

The client agrees that the stock broker may impose fines/penalties for any orders/trades / deals / actions of the client which are contrary to this agreement/rules/regulations/bye laws of the exchange or any other law for the time being in force, at such rates and in such form as it may deem fit. Further where the stock broker has to pay any fine or bear any punishment from any authority in connection with / as a consequence of /in relation to any of the orders/trades/deals/actions of the client, the same shall be borne by the client.

(5) The right to sell client's securities or close clients' positions, without giving notice to the client, on account of non-payment of client's dues "Limited to the extent of settlement/margin obligation."

Without prejudice to the stock brokers other right (including the right to refer the matter to arbitration), the stock broker shall be entitled to liquidate/close out all or any of the client's position without giving notice to the client for non-payment of margins or other amounts including the pay-in obligation, outstanding debts etc and adjust the proceeds of such liquidation/close out, if any, against the clients liabilities/obligations.

The client shall ensure timely availability of funds/securities in form and manner at designated time and in designated bank and depository account(s), for meeting his/her/its pay-in obligation of funds and securities. Any and all losses and financial charges on account of such liquidations/ closing out shall be charged to & born by the client. In cases of securities lying in margin account/client beneficiary account and having corporate actions like bonus, stock split, right issue etc, for margin or other purpose the benefit of shares due to received under bonus, stock split, right issue etc will be given when the shares is actually received in the stock brokers designated demat account.

In case the payment of the margin / security is made by the client through a bank instrument, the stock broker shall be at liberty to give the benefit/ credit for the same only on the realization of the funds from the said bank instrument etc, at the absolute discretion of the stock broker. Where the margin / security is made available by way of securities or any other property, the stock broker is empowered to decline its acceptance as margin / security &/or to accept it at such reduced value as the stock broker may deem fit by applying haircuts or by valuing it by marking it to market or by any other method as the stock broker may deem fit in its absolute discretion.

The stock broker has the right but not the obligation, to cancel all pending orders and to sell/close/liquidate all open positions/securities / shares at the pre-defined square off time or when Mark to Market (M-T-M) percentage reaches or crosses stipulated margin percentage, whichever is earlier. The stock broker will have sole discretion to decide referred stipulated margin percentage depending upon the market condition. In the event of such square off, the client agrees to bear all the losses based on actual executed prices, the client shall also be solely liable for all and any penalties and charges levied by the exchange(s).

(6) Shortages in obligations arising out of internal netting of trades

Stock broker shall not be obliged to deliver any securities or pay any money to the client unless and until the same has been received by the stock broker from the exchange, the clearing corporation / clearing house or other company or entity liable to make the payment and the client has fulfilled his/her/its obligations first. The policy and procedure for settlement of shortages in obligations arising out of internal netting of trades is as under:

- A) The Short delivering client is debited by an amount equivalent to 20% above of closing rate of day prior to Payin/ Payout Day. The securities delivered short are purchased from market on T+2 day and the purchase consideration (inclusive of all statutory taxes & levies) is debited to the short delivering seller client along with reversal entry of provisionally amount debited earlier.
- B) If securities cannot be purchased from market due to any force majeure condition, the short delivering seller is debited at the closing rate on T+2 day or Auction day on Exchange +10% where the delivery is matched partially or fully at the Exchange Clearing, the delivery and debits/credits shall be as per Exchange Debits and Credits.
- C) In cases of securities having corporate actions all cases of short delivery of cum transactions which cannot be auctioned on cum basis or where the cum basis auction payout is after the book Closure / record date, would be compulsory closed out at higher of 10% above the official closing price on the auction day or the highest traded price from first trading day of the settlement till the auction day.

(7) Conditions under which a client may not be allowed to take further position or the broker may close the existing position of a client

We have margin based RMS system. Client may take exposure upto the amount of margin available with us. Client may not be allowed to take position in case of non availability/shortage of margin as per our RMS policy of the company. The existing position of the client is also liable to square off/close out without giving notice due to shortage of margin / non making of payment for their payin obligation/lawful outstanding debts.

(8) Temporarily suspending or closing a client's account at the client's request

On the request of the client in writing, the client account can be suspended temporarily and same can be activated on the written request of the client only. During the period client account is suspended, the market transaction in the client account will be prohibited. However client shares / ledger balance settlement can take place. On the request of the client in writing, the client account can be closed provided the client account is settled. If the client wants to reopen the account in that case client has to again complete the KYC requirement.

(9) Deregistering a client

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated in the agreement, the stock broker shall be entitled to terminate the agreement with immediate effect in any of the following circumstances:

- (i) If the action of the client are prima facie illegal/improper or such as to manipulate the price of any securities or disturb the normal/proper functioning of securities or disturb the normal/proper functioning of the market, either alone or in conjunction with others.
- (ii) If there is any commencement of a legal process against the client under any law in force;
- (iii) On the death/lunacy or other disability of the Client;
- (iv) If the client being a partnership firm, has any steps taken by the Client and / or its partners for dissolution of the partnership;
- (v) If the Client suffers any adverse material change in his/her/its financial position or defaults in any other agreement with the Stock broker;
- (vi) If there is reasonable apprehension that the Client is unable to pay its debts or the Client has admitted its inability to pay its debts, as they become payable;
- (vii) If the Client is in breach of any term, condition or covenant of this Agreement;
- (viii) If the Client has made any material misrepresentation of facts, including (without limitation) in relation to the Security;
- (ix) If a receiver, administrator or liquidator has been appointed or allowed to be appointed of all or any part of the undertaking of the Client;
- (x) If the Client have taken or suffered to be taken any action for its reorganization, liquidation or dissolution;
- (xi) If the Client has voluntarily or compulsorily become the subject of proceedings under any bankruptcy or insolvency law or being a company, goes into liquidation or has a receiver appointed in respect of its assets or refers itself to the Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction or under any other law providing protection as a relief undertaking;
- (xii) If any covenant or warranty of the Client is incorrect or untrue in any material respect;

10) Inactive Client account

Client account will be considered as inactive if the client does not trade for period of two year. Calculation will be done at the beginning of every month and those clients who have not traded even a single time will be considered as inactive, the shares / credit ledger balance if any will be transferred to the client within one week of the identifying the client as inactive.

The client has to make written request for reactivation of their account.

Client's Acceptance of Policies and Procedures stated here in above:

These Policies and Procedures may be amended /changed unilaterally by the broker, provided the change in informed to me/us with through approved methods.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

(Commodity Segment)

1. Refusal of orders for penny/illiquid Commodity

The Commodities Broker shall have the absolute discretion, from time to time, to refuse/partially refuse/accept orders in one or more commodities due to various reasons including trading in penny commodities, market liquidity, value of commodity(ies), illiquid options, far month options, writing of options, market capitalization of the commodities and such commodity (ies) not in demat form, commodities which are not in the permitted list of the Commodities Broker / exchange(s) / SEBI and/or appear under illiquid commodities declared by the exchange(s). It is also provided further that Commodities Broker may ask for compulsory settlement/ advance payment of expected settlement value/delivery of commodities for settlement prior to acceptance / placement of order(s) as well. Losses, if any, on account of such refusal by the Commodities Broker or due to delay caused by such limits, shall be borne exclusively by the client alone.

The Commodities Broker shall not be responsible for any financial or other implications due to such execution, delay in execution or non-execution of any such orders. The Commodities Broker shall have the prerogative to place such restrictions, notwithstanding that the client has sufficient credit or margin available in his account.

The Commodities Broker, may however, allow for acceptance of such orders, for certain commodities on its own discretion, through its specific internal process, instead of allowing such orders through the standard process like online trading platform or its branches.

2. Setting up client's exposure limits

The Commodities Broker, may from time to time, vary limits or impose new limits for the orders that the client can place through the Commodities Broker's trading platforms. The Commodities Broker would have the sole discretion on setting these limits based on its risk perception of the client, Margin received from the client, Market conditions and other factors, but not limited to, limits on account of exchange/ SEBI directions/ limits (such as Commodities Broker level/ market level limits in commodity specific/volume specific exposures etc.). This would include exposure limits, turnover limits, limits as to the number, value and/or kind of commodities in respect of which orders can be placed etc.). The client is aware that the Commodities Broker may be unable to inform the client of such variation, reduction or imposition in advance. The Commodities Broker shall not be responsible for such variation, reduction or imposition or the client's inability to route any order through the Commodities Broker's trading system on account of any such variation, reduction or imposition of limits.

The Commodities Broker may at any time, at its sole discretion and without prior notice, prohibit or restrict the client's ability to place orders or trade in commodities through the Commodities Broker, or it may subject any order placed by the client to a review before its entry into the trading systems and may refuse to execute / allow execution of orders due to but not limited to the reason of lack of margin / commodities or the order being outside the limits set by the Commodities Broker / exchange / SEBI and any other reasons which the Commodities Broker may deem appropriate in the circumstances. Losses, if any, incurred by the client on account of such refusal or delay, shall be borne exclusively by the client alone.

The Commodities Broker shall have the prerogative to allow differential buy and sell limits for its clients depending upon credit worthiness, integrity and past conduct of each client.

3. Applicable brokerage rate

The Commodities Broker is entitled to charge brokerage within the limits imposed by exchange.

4. Imposition of penalty/delayed payment charges/other charges

The Commodities Broker would be entitled to levy or charge delayed payment charges not exceeding 24% per annum on any amounts which are overdue from the client towards trading or on account of any other reasons. The client shall pay to the Commodities Broker brokerage, all taxes, duties, levies to the commodities exchanges (including any amount due on account of reassessment / backlogs etc.), transaction expenses, F&O charges, delayed payment charges, short delivery charges, auction charges, cheque stop payment charges, cheque bounce charges, incidental expenses such as postage, courier etc. as they apply from time to time to the client's account / transactions / services that the client avails from the Commodities Broker.

The Commodities Broker may impose penalties / fines for any orders/trades /deals/ actions of the client which are contrary to Commodities Broker Client Agreement/rules/regulations / Bye-Laws of the exchange or any other law for the time being in force, at such rates and in such form as it may deem fit. Further where the Commodities Broker has to pay any fine or bear any punishment from any authority in connection with / as a consequence of/in relation to any of the orders/trades/deals/actions of the client, the same shall be borne by the client.

5. The right to sell client's commodities or close client's positions, without giving notice to the client, on account of non-payment of client's dues.

The Commodities Broker shall have the right and the prerogative to sell client's commodities, both unpaid commodities as well as collaterals deposited towards margins, or close out client's open positions, without giving notice to the client where there is either a delay or failure of the client to meet the pay-in/settlement obligations and / or there is delay /failure of the client to bring additional margins to cover the increase in risk in dynamic and volatile market conditions.

The client would be responsible for monitoring his/her/its position (dealings/trades and valuation of commodity(ies)) on his/her/its own and provide the required/deficit margin / commodity(ies) forthwith as required from time to time whether or not any margin call or such other separate communication to that effect is sent by the Commodities Broker to the client and/or whether or not such communication is received by the client. The client is not entitled to trade without adequate margin and that it shall be client's own responsibility to ascertain beforehand the margin requirements for its orders/trades/deals and to ensure that the required margin is made available to the Commodities Broker in such form and manner as may be required by the Commodities Broker. The client shall ensure that funds/commodities are made available in time and in designated form at designated bank(s) and depository account(s) of the Commodities Broker, for meeting his/her/its pay-in/settlement obligation of funds and commodities. The Commodities Broker shall not be responsible for any claim/loss/damage arising out of non-availability/short availability/delayed availability of funds/commodities by the client in the designated account(s) of the Commodities Broker for meeting the pay-in/settlement obligation of either funds or commodities. If the client gives orders/trades in the anticipation of the required commodities being available subsequently for pay-in/settlement through anticipated pay out from the exchange or through borrowings or any off market delivery(s) or market delivery(s) and if such anticipated availability does not materialize in actual availability of commodities/funds for pay-in/settlement for any reason whatsoever including but not limited to any delays/shortages at the exchange or Commodities Broker level/non-release of margin by the Commodities Broker etc., the losses which may occur to the client as a consequence of such shortages in any manner such as on account of auctions / square-off / closing outs etc., shall be solely to the account of the client and the Commodities Broker shall not be responsible for the same in any form or manner whatsoever.

In case the payment of the margin/commodity is made by the client through a bank instrument, the Commodities Broker shall be at liberty to give the benefit/credit for the same only on the realization of the funds from the said bank instrument & subsequent updation in records as per Commodities Broker's process. Where the margin/ commodity is made available by way of commodities, it is upto the Commodities Broker's discretion to decline its acceptance as margin &/or to accept it at such reduced value as the Commodities Broker may deem fit by applying haircuts or by valuing it by marking it to market or by any other method as the Commodities Broker may deem fit in its absolute discretion.

In the event of client failing to maintain or provide the required margin/fund/ commodity(ies) or to meet the funds/ margins/commodities pay-in obligations on immediate basis for the orders/trades/deals of the client and the Commodities Broker shall have the right, without any further notice or communication to the client, to withhold pay-out of funds/commodities, to liquidate commodity(ies), to disable trading facility to the client. Losses, if any, on account of any one or more steps, as enumerated herein above, being taken by the Commodities Broker, shall be borne exclusively by the client alone.

6. Conditions under which a client may not be allowed to take further position or the Commodities Broker may close the existing position of a client

The Commodities Broker may refuse to execute order of a client or may close the existing position of the client due to lack of margin / commodities or the order being outside the limits set by Commodities Broker/exchange/ SEBI. Other reasons for not allowing further positions or closing out of existing positions could be as:

- a) Client has not met his pay-in obligations in cash by the scheduled date of pay-in for purchases done in CM segment.
- b) Non-payment or erosion of margins or other amounts, outstanding debts, etc.
- c) Client is dealing in illiquid scrips or contracts/penny commodity.
- d) Cheque submitted by the client has bounced or clear funds not received with the Commodities Broker for the cheque submitted by the client.
- e) If in the opinion of the Commodities Broker, the client has committed a fraud, crime, or acted in contravention to the agreement.
- f) Non-Payment of Marked to Market loss in Cash.
- g) Open positions in a contract exceed or are close to market wide cut-off limits.
- h) Client's position is close to client-wise permissible open positions.
- i) Intraday orders after the cut-off time would not be allowed.

7. Temporarily suspending or closing a client's account

The Commodities Broker can suspend/close the client account and also withhold the pay-outs of client if there is any judicial or/and regulatory order/action requiring suspension/closure of client's account. The Commodities Broker can also suspend/close the client account if the Commodities Broker observes any abnormal or suspicious activity in the client account through its monitoring and surveillance of the client account. The Commodities Broker may also temporarily suspend/close the client account if there is no activity in the client account for a period, as deemed fit by the Commodities Broker from time to time. The client's account can also be put under temporary suspension/closure if the client has not cleared the uncovered debit in its account or if the client has not submitted Know Your Client (KYC) details sought by the Commodities Broker to fulfil its own surveillance or exchange related requirements. In the event of information/reports reaching the Commodities Broker of the client's death, the account can also be put under temporary suspension/closure. The Commodities Broker can also put the client's account under temporary suspension/closure if the client has failed to provide or update its communication details like correspondence address, Mobile number, landline numbers or E-mail ID. The client may also request the Commodities Broker to temporarily suspend/close his account, Commodities Broker may do so subject to client accepting/adhering to conditions imposed by Commodities Broker including but not limited to settlement of account and/or other obligation.

8. De-registering a client

The client has the option to De-register his account after settling his account with the Commodities Broker. The client would be liable to pay all dues in his account before the De-registration. The Commodities Broker shall have the right to terminate the agreement with immediate effect in any of the following circumstances:

- a) The client account figures in the list of debarred entities published by SEBI.
- b) The actions of the Client are prima facie illegal / improper or such as to manipulate the price of any commodities or disturb the normal / proper functioning of the market, either alone or in conjunction with others.
- c) If there is any legal /regulatory proceeding against the client under any law in force.
- d) If there is reasonable apprehension that the Client is unable to pay its debts or the Client has admitted its inability to pay its debts, as they become payable;
- e) If the Client is in breach of any term, condition or covenant of this Agreement;
- f) When the Commodities Broker is informed or ascertains that the client has deceased / become insolvent / not able to act in the market due to lunacy/disability etc.
- g) The Commodities Broker shall have the right to close out the existing positions, sell the collaterals to recover any dues with or without consent of the client before the de-registration of the client.
- h) Either party will be entitled to terminate the agreement without assigning any reason, after giving notice in writing of not less than 30 days to the other party.

Not with standing any such termination/deregistering, all rights, liabilities and obligations of the parties arising out of or in respect of transactions entered into prior to the termination/deregistering, shall continue to subsist and vest in/ be binding on the respective parties or his/its respective heirs/executors/administrators/legal representatives/ successors as the case may be.

9. INACTIVE CLIENT ACCOUNT

A client account will be considered as inactive if the client account does not record any trade for 6 months. The trading activity of the client account shall be tracked and a client's account, where no trading is observed for a period of 6 months shall be categorized as inactive (dormant) and put under temporary suspension. Arihant Capital Markets Limited would be placing such accounts under temporary suspension. Once the account is under temporary suspension, the client would not be allowed to login to his account or trade (place orders) either through online mode or by calling/visiting its service branch.

REACTIVATION: the client can get such account(s) reactivated by placing a reactivation request. The client needs to submit the Commodities Account Reactivation Form in hard copy directly to our Head office or through signed scan copy on designated email of Arihant Head Office. Do not allow anyone (including your own stock broker, their representatives and dealers) to trade in your trading account on their own without taking specific instruction from you for your trades. Do not share your internet/ mobile trading login credentials with anyone else.
2. You are required to place collaterals as margins with the stock broker before you trade. The collateral can either be in the form of funds transfer into specified stock broker bank accounts or margin pledge of securities from your demat account. The bank accounts are listed on the stock broker website. Please do not transfer funds into any other account. The stock broker is not permitted to accept any cash from you.
3. The stock broker's Risk Management Policy provides details about how the trading limits will be given to you, and the tariff sheet provides the charges that the stock broker will levy on you.
4. All securities purchased by you will be transferred to your demat account within one working day of the payout. In case of securities purchased but not fully paid by you, the transfer of the same may be subject to limited period pledge i.e. seven trading days after the pay-out (CUSPA pledge) created in favor of the stock broker. You can view your demat account balances directly at the website of the Depositories after creating a login.
5. The stock broker is obligated to deposit all funds received from you with any of the Clearing Corporations duly allocated in your name. The stock broker is further mandated to return excess funds as per applicable norms to you at the time of quarterly/ monthly settlement. You can view the amounts allocated to you directly at the website of the Clearing Corporation(s).
6. You will get a contract note from the stock broker within 24 hours of the trade.
7. You may give a one-time Demat Debit and Pledge Instruction (DDPI) authority to your stock broker for limited access to your demat account, including transferring securities, which are sold in your account for pay-in.
8. The stock broker is expected to know your financial status and monitor your accounts accordingly. Do share all financial information (e.g. income, networth, etc.) with the stock broker as and when requested for. Kindly also keep your email Id and mobile phone details with the stock broker always updated.
9. In case of disputes with the stock broker, you can raise a grievance on the dedicated investor grievance ID of the stock broker. You can also approach the stock exchanges and/or SEBI directly.
10. Any assured/guaranteed/fixed returns schemes or any other schemes of similar nature are prohibited by law. You will not have any protection/recourse from SEBI/stock exchanges for participation in such schemes.
